

“That’s political corruption ...
the prison guards”

JOHN COX
Candidate for Governor

JOHN COX has a long history of attacking “prison guards,” pensions and unions.

Anti-“Prison Guard”

“... it shouldn’t be costing $75,000 a year to house a prisoner. And that’s corruption, that’s political corruption. That’s because the prison guards ...”

John Cox, San Diego Union Tribune, 5-11-18

Anti-Pensions

“That was the beginning of the end, they [increased pensions] for public safety, but then everybody wanted it.”

John Cox, San Diego Union Tribune, 5-11-18

Anti-Union

- COX supported Prop 75, which would have stripped CCPOA and other unions of the political power needed to protect our members — which we defeated. Source: Politics, Inc., pages 96-97
- COX supported Prop 32 in 2012 — another losing attempt to weaken unions. Source: California Secretary of State spending reports, 4-30-12

