CCPOA Endorses Kraft for Assembly

(RIVERSIDE COUNTY, CA) Today Republican Assembly candidate Greg Kraft announced receiving the endorsement of the California Correctional Peace Officers Association (CCPOA) in his campaign to represent the 60th Assembly District. CCPOA represents more than 30,000 correctional peace officers statewide.

“We look forward to assisting you in your victory,” said CCPOA President Mike Jimenez. “We hope that once elected, you will continue your demonstrated interest in developing meaningful reforms that will improve the correctional system and make all Californians safer.”

Greg Kraft enthusiastically responded to the endorsement, “I’m extremely proud to have the support of such influential law enforcement organizations such as the CCPOA and the Riverside County Sheriffs’ Association. Public safety is one of my absolute passions and one of the reasons why I am running for Assembly. Having their support will be very influential come election day.”

Kraft is a state correctional officer as well as a five time elected Alvord School District Board member. The school district, which stretches from the western portion of the City of Riverside to the city of Corona, includes much of the 60th district.

Kraft and his wife of 29 years have 5 children and 2 grandchildren.
