WEST SACRAMENTO — The California Correctional Peace Officers Association announced today the launch of their new prison reform video on the CCPOA website. The video emphasizes the union's commitment to long-term meaningful reform and provides solutions to the fiscal crisis within the California prison system.

CCPOA has been actively engaged in discussions with some of the nation's leading experts on the subject of Corrections and it is currently proposing numerous efficiency plans to the California State Legislature.

The video can be viewed at www.ccpoa.org/together.
