California Correctional Peace Officers Association announces new Press Secretary

WEST SACRAMENTO- The California Correctional Peace Officers Association today announced the hiring of JeVaughn Baker to Press Secretary within their Corporate Communications Division. In this position JeVaughn will be responsible for coordinating media relations activities and serving as spokesman for the association.

“We are very pleased to have JeVaughn as our Press Secretary” says Chuck Alexander, Executive Vice President of CCPOA. “We believe that he brings a unique perspective and adds a new voice to our association as we move forward with our message of reform.

CCPOA has been amongst the leading stakeholders in taking up the issue of reforming California’s correctional system and has made strides in collaborating with partners that the union had not worked with in the past.

“I am very excited about the opportunity before me”, JeVaughn says, “Our correctional system has been in crisis for some time now and it’s going to take sophisticated efforts to engage all of the interested parties. Nevertheless, I look forward to carrying a message of reform and working with those of like minds as well as those with divergent views on the issues.”

JeVaughn is a graduate of the University of California, Davis and prior to this hiring, served as Vice President of Program Services for Minorities In Law Enforcement and Senior Legislative Affairs Representative for CCPOA.

Mr. Baker will begin his duties in this role July 26, 2010. For more information please contact JeVaughn Baker at (916) 372-6060 or ccpoa.jevaughn@mac.com
